2010 Boy Scout Troop Camp Fee Policy

Campsite Reservation Process

Troops may put in a site reservation request to the council office beginning September 1st. Reservations ensure that the Troop has a site of adequate size for the upcoming year, and help us to plan and staff accordingly. As a special incentive, Troops wishing to return to the same campsite for the same week next year are allowed to re-reserve their site at camp before they leave for the week this year.

Reservations are first come, first served, and not considered complete until all of the following three items are complete:

1. Complete the 2010 Troop Summer Camp Reservation form, including your 1st, 2nd, and 3rd choice of campsites (3 different camp sites)
2. Commit to bringing a projected number of campers that satisfies the minimum for your campsite choices. (See chart).
3. Pay a $200 Reservation Fee. No reservations can be held without paying the fee. The Reservation Fee is non-refundable and will be deducted from the total Troop final bill.

Patriots' Path Council will then assign a campsite based on your site preferences. In order to accommodate all camping requests, Troops might sometimes need to share a site with another unit or be relocated to a site that better meets your projected attendance. Any changes will be discussed and finalized with you well before you arrive at camp. If a Troop commits to enough campers to satisfy the "Site Exclusivity Minimum", then they will not need to share their site.

To keep your reservation, you need to confirm your minimum number of campers by submitting a non-refundable deposit of $50 per camper (both scouts and adults) by 2/15.

- This can be more or less than the original reservation count, as long as it still satisfies the site minimum, or else you might be moved to an alternate site of a more appropriate size. Similarly, if your reservation headcount met the "Site Exclusivity Minimum" but your deposit no longer does, you are no longer guaranteed exclusivity in the site.
- Note that this $50 deposit is per-camper and non-refundable and cannot be applied to other fees. The aim is to get a reasonably accurate headcount as early as possible, for site assignments.
- Troops must pay the balance of fees according to the current fee schedule.

Phone reservations via credit card (along with a verbal headcount commitment) can be accepted, as long as the requisite paperwork follows within 5 business days.
